October 2008

Governor's Report

On September 4, 2008, the Pueblo of Isleta honored Saint Augustinito with a feast. Visitors from the surrounding Pueblos visited Isleta, along with other Native Americans from different parts of the country. I want to say thank you to the Mayordomos, Mark Jojola and Sandra Eastman and their families, to Alfred Herrera and the Acoya family for preparing and serving food to all tribal members. The food and everything was great! We also want to thank the Jicarilla Apache Tribe for their donation of two elk that were prepared by the Casino Chefs. Thank you to the chefs for expertly preparing the elk for a wonderful meal.

The history of the Saint Augustinito Feast is to honor and thank him by performing traditional dances and preparing food and feeding all people who attend the feast. Farmers prayed to Saint Augustinito for rain and vowed to hold a feast if their prayers were answered, and their prayers were answered, ending a long drought that brought prosperity back to our community. Sometimes we forget about important people who are a part of this history, the Elders who are appointed for life, we thank them and their families for their roles and commitment to the promise we made to Saint Augustinito.

September was a busy month as the administration staff attended many meetings. On September 18, 2008 Isleta hosted the New Mexico Legislative Committee for Water, and Natural Resources. As the host tribe, Isleta was allowed one hour to present its White Paper on water and natural resources, and the impact on Isleta due to water transfers upstream, the pumping of water, and the purchase of water rights by developers. I reported the importance of water to the Pueblo of Isleta, and talked about the history and the impact water has had on our customs, religion and farming. Following the meeting, we toured the Rio Grande, where legislators got a look at the impacts Isleta is suffering due to the mentioned subject matter. Legislators were also taken to the diversion dam to see the devastation from the silt buildup and the poor maintenance of the Middle Rio Grande Conservancy. MRGCD has failed to remove the silt sediment pulled from the canals and river. A lot of this silt, which is fine gravel material, ends up in our yards whenever we have a wind storm.

Rodney Ferguson, General Manager for Isleta Casino and Resort turned in his resignation, effective October 7, 2008. Rodney has accepted a position as the CEO Director for the Spirit Mountain Confederate Tribes of Grand Ronde, Oregon. We wish Rodney all the success in his new position, and thank him for his dedication to the Pueblo of Isleta during his employment.

Official Public Notices have been mailed to your residence, tribal members who may be planning on entering the race for Governor or Tribal Council that Declaration for Candidacy for the year 2009-2010 term are now being accepted at the Tribal Council office. Get involved, register and vote, not only for tribal elections but for federal and state elections. Your vote is important!

Los Lunas High School Title VII

This year, new changes have been implemented to help and support Native American students. The Title VII Indian Education staff will be working more closely with all school administrators, counselors, teachers, Isleta Tribal Administration, Department of Education and Truancy Programs to provide more and better services to our Native American students. One of the most important areas is making students aware of the services available, both in and out of school, to all Native American students. Some of the services available are after-school tutoring, access to school supplies, reimbursement for ACT/ SAT fees, and graduation cap and gown expenses.

Mr. Ben Analla, Los Lunas Title VII Liaison, is available to provide individual assistance for any Native American student. Students are encouraged to visit with Mr. Analla regarding any concerns regarding academic or other school related issues. This includes problems with failing grades and attendance issues!

Mr. Analla will be at Valencia High School on Thursdays to meet with students and staff.

If there should be any questions concerning your child's education, or on Los Lunas and, or Valencia High Schools, please call Mr. Analla at 865-4646. For questions concerning other schools in the Los Lunas

School District, you may call Jeanette Garcia, Title VII Native American Coordinator at 866-8291.

ISLETA TRIBAL ENROLLMENT/CENSUS OFFICE

LOCATION: 117-B TRIBAL ROAD 40, BETWEEN THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE AND
THE POST OFFICE, THROUGH THE BLACK IRON GATES

HOURS OF OPERATION: MONDAY — FRIDAY, 8:00 AM TO 4:30 PM

TELEPHONE NUMBERS: (505) 766-6624/25, FAX (505) 869-0362

TRIBAL IDS ARE ISSUED TO TRIBAL MEMBERS ON

TUESDAYS AND THURSDAYS FROM 8:30 AM TO 4:00 PM

ATTENTION INDIVIDUAL INDIAN MONEY (IIM) ACCOUNT HOLDERS

The Office of the Special Trustee (OST) for American Indians in conjunction with the Isleta Tribal Enrollment/Census Office is attempting to locate Isleta Pueblo tribal members with an Individual Indian Money (IIM) account or for whom per capita judgment funds are held.

There are two lists; one contains the names of adults whose whereabouts are unknown and their per capita share is held in a tribal trust holding account, the other is a list of individuals with an IIM account whose current address is unknown.

Minors with an IIM account may access their funds upon reaching 18 years of age, provided they are able to manage their financial affairs on their own. Individuals not able to manage their financial affairs, as defined in 25 CFR 115.002, should be reported to the BIA Social Services, Southern Pueblos Agency, at (505) 563-3748 at least 120 days prior to their 18th birthday. The social worker will need to assess whether the individual's account should be supervised as an adult.

The Tribal Enrollment Office has the form OST 01-004/6 to give to any minors who reach the age of 18 to complete for access to their account. The account holder will need to sign and date the form on or after their 18th birthday. The account holder may request all of their IIM funds and the account will be closed or they may request a voluntary hold. Under the voluntary hold option, the account holder may request funds for a one time disbursement, indicating the amount to be disbursed, or they may schedule payments of their IIM account funds. The frequency for the scheduled payments may be disbursed monthly, quarterly, weekly or bi-weekly, indicating the exact dollar amounts. The payments may also be made to a third party.

The account holder may also choose a method of payment in the form of direct deposit or by check, which will be mailed to the address indicated on the statements that were mailed to the account holder by the OST.

When calling the OST, it is important that the account holder knows that several security questions will be asked to verify the identity of the account holder.

For information on updating your account, or to request a form, please contact Evangeline M. Lente, Tribal Enrollment Coordinator at (505) 766-6624 or Peter J. Fredericks, Fiduciary Trust Officer at (505) 563-3564.

Parks & Recreation

The 2008 State Fair and September are all but a memory. October is the start of Balloon Fiesta with our staff already planning a trip to the Balloon Glow. The children from the Old Rec program who had the opportunity to attend the State Fair really had a great time. Andrena Martin reports that even though the Fair was a little more expensive, the children had a great time enjoying the exhibits, food, and amusement rides. Also the children from the New Rec program have been treated to a special event every Wednesday, which is early release day for our elementary school. The children have already attended the Dollar Movie, the Isleta

Fun Connection and Build-A-Bear program in Albuquerque just to name a few. Bernie Jojola and Kimberly Chiwewe report that the after-school program has been steadily growing every week. Additionally, Roberta Chavarillo continues to take the children to "Big Mama Hill" for Cross Country practice as well as to the regular competition meets on Saturdays. She too reports that participation on a daily basis continues to grow. Evening and weekend activities continue as normal with Mike Lente and Ray Mora leading the way with early morning Spinning Classes, as well as the two classes offered on Monday and Wednesdays at 5 pm and 6 pm.

Arts/Crafts

The after-school arts/crafts class with Nanas Abenita, Marie and Gloria continues to be a major staple of the program where our elementary children really enjoy and take advantage of. This year's 2008 State Fair had many of our children displaying some of their projects and winning many ribbons for their participation and outstanding work. Rest assured, with Balloon Fiesta here and Halloween at the end of October, many of the Arts/Crafts projects will be part of the October theme. Pictured at the right, beginning from left to right was Sabrina Jojola winning 2nd place for her project, Darren Jojola receiving a participation ribbon, Lexys Pino winning 1st place for her Rocking Chair, Phillip Sangre 1st place for his Drum, Sara Roybal 3rd place for her Easter Basket and participation ribbons for her Covered Wagons.

Park Management

As our park system continues to grow, I want to give a special thanks to the Road Department headed by Mike "Charles" Lente and assisted by Jacob Garcia, Irwin Garcia, and Patrick Gasper for their continued support to the growth of our park system. They have been continually available to our park management crew by providing their big semi trucks, hauling thousands of tons of dirt, and their water truck, which has been intricately a big part to the development of our park system. Big Bob Lujan says "it is nice to have others within our Pueblo (Road Crew) having a lot to do with what is going on within our park system. It gives them a sense of ownership to what our park management crew is putting together with their continued support." Pictured is Jacob Garcia from the Road Department unloading one of several thousand tons of dirt needed to the development of the Little League Park across the street from New Rec.

Pictured below is Assistant Park Superintendent Robert Apodaca giving direction to park crew and pueblo member Jose "Pedro" Jojola on where sprinklers and bubblers must be placed. Next to that picture is once again Assistant Park Superintendent pointing out to contractor Mike Chavez from Armour Paving, where speed humps must be placed to slow traffic down on Tribal Road 40.

Halloween Extravaganza

This year's Halloween Party, which is one of the Pueblo's biggest events, will be on Friday, October 24, 2008 from 5 pm until 8 pm. Kimberly Chiwewe will once again be coordinating this year's event. Mary Ann Carpio and Lil Bern Benavidez will assist her. The date of the event was decided by all participating programs which most agreed not to have the event on the actual Halloween Night which is Friday, October 31, 2008. They felt the actual night of Halloween might have less children participating because many go out visiting families and friends for "Trick or Treating". Kimberly also reports that this event could not be possible without the help of all Departments who develop their own games and booths for all to enjoy. The Elderly program will have food concessions as a fundraiser for their 2009 Senior Olympics in San Francisco. Please everyone, young and old, come out and enjoy this event with our children, grandchildren. And if all of your children and grandchildren are already gone, come out and enjoy the food, cakewalks, and camaraderie of your friends and neighbors. Like years past, this event is for all of us, young and old. Everyone who would like to participate, we ask that you dress in your favorite costume. Costume Contest categories will be from ages 0-3 years, 4 to 6 years old, 7 to 9 years old, 10 to 12 years old, 13 to 17 years old, and all adults 18 years and older.

Six from Karate One

Karate One of Isleta, Pueblo of Isleta Recreation Center martial arts program proved their skills and talent at the 2008 State Games of the West which was recently held at the U. S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado. The event was open to amateur athletes of all ages and skill levels from 13 Western states. The majority of the competitors were from Colorado, Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Utah and Wyoming.

The small group of 6 Martial Arts students competed in 2008 State Games of the West with the assistance from their Sensi, Mr. Chavez. The group from Isleta competed and earned medals in the following events: Briana Roybal 1st in Kata, 1st in Sparring and 1st in Weapons Kata; David Roybal 1st in Kata and 1st in sparring; Catherine Chavez 1st in sparring and 2nd in kata; Connor Chavez 2nd in sparring; Damacio Chiwiwi 1st in sparring; Cheyenne Zuni 1st in kata and 1st in sparring.

The Games of the West served as a qualifier for next summer's State Games of America. The 2009 State Games of America will be held July 30 through August 2 at the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado. The State Games of America have previously been held in St. Louis, Missouri (1999, 2001), Hartford, Connecticut (2003) and Colorado Springs, Colorado (2005, 2007). The 2008 State Games of the West is organized and managed by the Colorado Springs Sports Corporation, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

For more information about the martial arts team or questions about martial arts, please contact Mr. Chavez at 866-4360 or 869-8557 at the Pueblo of Isleta, Recreation Center.

ISLETA BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES SPONSORS 17TH ANNUAL RED RIBBON RELAY RUN

Isleta Pueblo Nation, along with many Native American Nations of New Mexico, sponsored the United We Run to be "Drug Free" multicultural Red Ribbon Relay Run.

The Red Ribbon Relay Run began in 1985 to commemorate Enrique (Kiki) Camarena, who was assassinated in Tijuana, Mexico by Mexican drug traffickers. Enrique was a Mexican / American law enforcement officer, with a university degree in Criminal Justice, who joined the Drug Enforcement Agency. Mr. Camarena's dangerous life was depicted in the academy award winning film entitled, "Traffic". Mr. Benicio Del Torres portrayed Enrique Camarena.

New Mexico is a gateway border state for illicit drug trafficking, coming from Mexico, Central and South America. Drugs have eroded and in some cases destroyed the fabric of American families nationwide. Native American communities are affected by the illegal drug culture. Families are impacted by drug addicted family members; drug gangster lifestyles influencing their children; meth labs on reservations posing serious bio health concerns and the threat of chemical explosions. These are a few of the many ways our community is impacted by the existence of the illegal drug culture in America.

Isleta Behavioral Health Services (IBHS) provides drug / alcohol addiction recovery services and behavioral mental health services to Isleta tribal members and Native Americans. IBHS staff consist of: Program Manager — Sue Sanchez; Clinical Supervisor — Frazier Wilson; Counselors — B.J. Frady, Gabriel Rael, Krystal Lucero, Lisa Cherino, Willie Waquie, Santana Titla-Wall; Case Manager — Stan Zuni; Administrator — Daisy Zuni; Secretary / Receptionist — Eloisa Dewahe; Transportation Coordinator — Jacob Abeita; and Resident Psychiatrist — Richard B. Smith, M.D., PA.

IBHS would like to thank the following local sponsors of the 2008 Red Ribbon Relay Run: Isleta Responsible Gaming; Isleta Casino and Resort; Isleta One Stop; Isleta EMS; Isleta Police Department; Isleta Social Services; Isleta Elder Center; Saint Augustine Parish; & Isleta Governor's Office.

Most importantly, IBHS would like to thank the runners who participated in this year's Red Ribbon Relay Run. IBHS sponsored the Red Ribbon Run from Bernardo, New Mexico on September 10, 2008 and finished our leg of the Relay at the New Mexico State Fair Indian Village on September 12, 2008.

Anyone who has run a mile knows that this is no easy feat. The Pueblo of Isleta Runners, POI Social Services Runners, IBHS Runners, and the Alamo Runners all ran greater than one mile individually. Thanks for representing Isleta and other Native American Nations in this annual event.

Pueblo of Isleta Public Library

Hello everyone from the Pueblo of Isleta Public Library!

Great news! Our Fall Fun has ended and congratulations to the students who worked very hard at attaining their 30 points through reading and completing their homework. They were rewarded with a trip to Hinkle Family Fun Center. We had hoped to take all 51 students who were making an attempt at the beginning of the program, but it was 13 who stuck through till the end. Great job guys! To those who fell short of the 30, good try! We hope that you'll be able to join us on another trip.

Halloween is coming up and the library staff is really excited for this one. Halloween happens to be a favorite holiday for two of our staff members. They say it is a time of make-believe. You get to pretend to be anybody you want. We hope everyone is going to dress up as their favorite character and attend the Halloween Carnival at the New Rec on Friday, October 24, 2008. We are currently working on our booth for the carnival. Don't forget to stop by our booth and give us your best scare! On that note: In the spirit of Halloween, the library is holding a scary story contest. We are looking for the scariest story out there. Beginning September 29, we will be accepting written submissions. The contest is open to all ages. All the stories will be judged within the same age category, pending on the number of submissions we receive. The winner will be awarded a $30 gift certificate to Spirit Halloween Store. At the end of the contest, we would like to compile all the stories into one book and place it on our shelves. Therefore, the stories must be original; not taken from a book, nor taken from a movie. Personal experiences are acceptable. An excessive amount of foul language, gore or anything that would warrant a possible NC-17 rating will not be accepted. There is no word limit. We just encourage everyone to be as creative as possible; the spookier the better. The contest ends on October 20, 2008 and the winner will be picked on the October 22, 2008 by both the Library Board and Teen Library Board.

October isn't just about Halloween, either. It's time to take to the skies. It is time for the annual Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta. Although we cannot make a personal trip to the event, we are planning on celebrating the occasion in our own way. Beginning September 22, we will begin our "Up, Up, and Away!" program. Like the story contest, we want to bring out the creativity in everyone. We will be working on two projects: Hot Air Balloon Coloring Contest and Paper Mache' Hot Air Balloon Design Contest. Anyone who wishes to participate in the coloring contest can stop by the library and color a sheet. Depending on the amount of entries, the coloring contest might be broken into ages groups but at the moment the winner will receive a $10 gift certificate to Sports Authority. As for the paper mache balloon contest, we invite everyone to come into the Library to create, design, and paint their own balloon. On October 1st and October 8th will be making the paper mache so people around the 5 o'clock hour for those people interested in entering the contest. All materials will be provided by the library and depending on the amount of entries, there might be age groups. Both the coloring contest and the paper mache contest will need to be done in the library. The winner(s) will receive a $20 gift certificate to the Coronado Mall and will be picked on October 15, 2008 by both library board and teen library board members.

There will be a Tribal Libraries Fundraiser and Gala Event on Saturday, October 25, 2008 from 6pm – 10 pm at the Isleta Casino and Resort. The Isleta Pueblo Public Library is one of six tribal libraries hosting this event with the goal to raise as much money as possible to support future programs held at the six tribal libraries. The six tribal libraries are Isleta, Acoma, Jemez, Laguna, Santa Clara, and San Ildefonso. "Tribal Libraries: Where Dreams Take Flight" will be theme for the event. There will be both a LIVE Auction for the bigger donated art pieces and a silent auction for the smaller donated art pieces by well known Native Artist. If you would like to help out your local tribal library and would like to donate an art piece, then please contact Nathaniel Lujan at (505) 869-8119. Entertainment will include the 2004 Grammy Award Winner for Best Native American Music Album artist Black Eagle Drum Group and dinner will be provided by the Isleta Casino and Resort's Class A Chefs. Tickets are $75 per ticket of $500 for a table that sits eight people. Seating is limited to the first 200 event tickets sold and RSVP need to be done by October 15, 2008. For more information and the event or tickets please call Nathaniel Lujan at (505) 869-8119.

The Library would like to Thank, Aimen Abu Zahrieh, from Garden Fresh in Bosque Farms for donating snacks to the After School Homework Program (A.S.H.P.) in the month of September. Because the students enjoyed the snacks so much the library and Aimen (Garden Fresh) have created a business agreement where Aimen would provide Healthy Snacks for the A.S.H.P. in future months to come. Rumor has it that there will be no pumpkin patch this year, BUT again Aimen (Garden Fresh) has stepped in to provide the Library & the A.S.H.P. students with pumpkins so the Halloween Spirit can continue to prosper. Thank you, Aimen and Garden Fresh for supporting your neighborhood library.

At the end of summer the library purchased a Disc Repair System for our DVD and CD libraries. The Disc Repair System saves us money by not having to throw away our scratched DVDs and CDs or sending them away to another place for them to be repaired. Because the Disc Repair System works wonders for us, we are offering our Disc Repair System services to the public for a fee of $2 per disc. We understand that the community has DVDs, CDs, Playstation and Xbox games that are scratched and would like to get them fixed so here is your chance. However, Blu Ray Disc and Playstations 3 games are the only discs that we are unable to fix. For more information about the Disc Repair System services please visit the library or call the library at (505) 869-8119.

The family of Joe E. Zuni, would like to extend a sincere and heartfelt thank you to all of you who were able to attend his services. Our father left us on September 11, 2008 at the age of 82, after complications from having gone through surgery for a broken hip.

Our family would like to thank you for all of your support during the past year, especially, to those who stopped in to say hello to our "Dad" during his time of illness. Our Father touched many lives during his time on earth and due to his commitment and dedication to his people, he will remain in many hearts forever. I am sure we will all be reminded and will miss him at those special times of the year. Keep strong and think of him in song and prayer.

Again, thank you for your kind words of condolence and for keeping Tata ShaTeu in your prayers.

From the Zuni Family,

NEW FACES AT THE CLINIC

Health Educator: Stephanie Barela, 869-4479

Hello my name is Santana Titia-Wall. I was recently hired as a Mental Health Counselor. I am half Acoma and half San Carlos Apache. I live in Acoma with my 8 yr old son, Hunter and my husband Adrian Wall, Artist and Musician. Before I came to Isleta Behavioral Health Services I worked for Acoma Behavioral Health Services for over 8 1/2 years, as a Prevention Generalist and then as the Gambling Addiction Service Coordinator.

I enjoyed providing many different therapy and educational groups for adolescents and adults, but also provided prevention activities and counseling for the community. Another interest for me is working with the elder population and hope that can happen soon. I am also a recovering alcoholic and have learned much from my road to recovery—everyday. I feel hopeful and thankful when I am able to actively work towards wellness with our native and not-native people. Thank you for allowing me to work for and with your community.

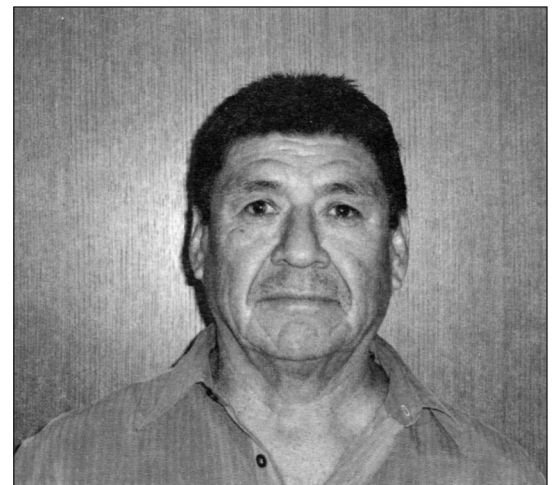

My name is Terence Lujan; I am the new receptionist at the Isleta Health Center. I used to work in Medical Records 3 years ago and am glad to be back at the clinic again. I have a seven month old son named Zachery.

My name is Lorraine Vargas and I am the Medical Records Manager. I recently retired from the State of New Mexico, and the majority of years worked was with the Department of Health. I enjoy playing and coaching basketball.

Hi, my name is William (Willie) Waquie, tribal member of the pueblo of Jemez. I recently joined the Pueblo of Isleta Behavioral Health Staff as the Mental Health/Addictions Counselor. I am happy to be with the Behavioral Health Program and look forward to working with the staff and providing services to the tribal members.

National Dental Hygiene Month

Health Beat

Health Educator: Stephanie Barela, 869-4479

October is National Dental Hygiene (Health) Month.

There are a few IMPORTANT THINGS to REMEMBER when thinking about your Dental Health:

1. Brush your teeth at least 2 times a day (morning and night), but 3 times a day is better!!
2. Eat healthy foods with little sugar.
3. Go to the Isleta Dental Clinic at least 2 times a year for your regular check up. (869-4872)
4. Use fluoride toothpaste to help protect your teeth from cavities.

What do you do when you or your child has a toothache?

First of all, what is a Toothache? Pain in the tooth, usually from tooth decay (Cavities). Usually, if you or your child had a toothache, you will notice a white or brown spot on the teeth, small red bumps on the gum near the tooth, possibly a swollen cheek and pus coming out of the gum. You or your child may even have a fever.

What can you do at home to help relieve a toothache?

- o To remove any possible food stuck in the tooth, it is good to floss on both sides of it.
- o Give Tylenol for pain (read the label to find out how much medicine to give)

What can I do to prevent cavities?

- o Brush your teeth at least 3 times a day.
- o Don't put child to bed with a bottle or sippy cup.
- o Mainly drink water from the tap, rather than bottled water. Most tap water has fluoride, which fights cavities, but bottled water does not. You can also ask your dentist if you or your child needs more fluoride.

- o As soon as your child's teeth appear, you should start cleaning them, either with a soft tooth brush or a wet cloth (you do not need tooth paste).
- o Begin to teach your child to brush at 2 years old, however you will still need to help your child brush until 5 years old.
- o Make an appointment with the dentist when your child gets his first tooth and no later than 1 year old.
- o Floss your teeth.
- o Buy a new tooth brush every 3-4 months. Everyone in the family should have their own tooth brush, it should not be shared!!

When should I call the clinic?

- o If you see a brown or black spot in the mouth,
- o If you or your child has a tooth pain,
- o If you or your child has a fever or swelling in the cheek, jaw or chin.

Other things to know about teeth and a toothache:

- o You only get 2 sets of teeth, so when your permanent ones grow in, it is VERY important to take good care of them!!
- o All tooth cavities should be seen by the DENTIST!!
- o Tooth Sealant is a clear cover put on teeth to stop cavities.

Talk to your dentist about it.

- o SPIT out toothpaste when you are brushing your teeth. It is not healthy to swallow it.

WIC NOTES

Baby Health Care Basics

You do not want to have to rush out to the pharmacy every time your baby starts to snifle. Keep these health-care basics on hand so you can address your child's symptoms as soon as they appear. You can store them together in a basket or plastic drawer divider.

- ☐ Rectal thermometer for infants under 4 months
- ☐ Digital thermometer for infants over 4 months
- ☐ Tweezers (for splinters)
- ☐ Nasal aspirator
- ☐ Medicine dropper
- ☐ Baby nail scissors or clippers
- ☐ Cotton balls and swabs
- ☐ Self-adhesive bandages
- ☐ Cold pack (keep in freezer)
- ☐ KY jelly
- ☐ Saline nose drops
- ☐ Infant acetaminophen drops
- ☐ Infant ibuprofen drops (for infants over 6 months only)
- ☐ Oral rehydration solutions (such as Pedialyte)
- ☐ Diaper rash ointment
- ☐ Antibiotic ointment
- ☐ Topical tetter gel
- ☐ Rubbing alcohol.

When to Take Your Baby to the Doctor

Here are some of the reasons why you should take your baby to see the doctor, however, always call the doctor's office if you are ever in doubt.

- ☐ Fever over 100 degrees F in a baby younger than 4 months
- ☐ Fever over 101 degrees F in a baby 4-6 months of age
- ☐ Fever over 103 degrees F in a baby over 6 months of age
- ☐ Your baby is unresponsive or sleeping excessively
- ☐ She refused to eat two or three meals in a row
- ☐ She is wetting fewer than four diapers a day
- ☐ She has persistent vomiting and /or diarrhea for more than 24 hours
- ☐ She has blood in her vomit, stool, or urine
- ☐ He seems to be having difficulty breathing
- ☐ She shows signs of ear pain (has redness or an outer ear or cheek, cries when she is laid down) or has drainage from an ear
- ☐ She has a rash accompanied by a fever
- ☐ She has white patches in her mouth
- ☐ He has yellow or orange hued skin or eyes
- ☐ She has discharge from her eyes, nails, navel, or genitals

How to Take Your Baby's Temperature

It may seem hard to do at first but taking your baby's temperature with a rectal thermometer is no big deal.

When you call the doctor about a fever, she'll want to know your baby's exact temperature. In infants under 4 months of age rectal thermometers provide the most accurate readings.

1. Apply petroleum or KY jelly to a digital rectal thermometer tip. Never use a mercury thermometer.
2. Lay your baby on the changing table on her back (not on her belly, which is an uncomfortable position for newborns) and lift her legs in the air like you are going to change her.
3. Gently slide the thermometer about a half-inch into the rectum, and then hold it in place for two minutes or until the thermometer signals that it is done.

A rectal thermometer can stimulate your baby's bowels, so have paper towel or wipes on hand.

A Better Brain for Baby

Could you give your child a more important gift than a better brain? The brain is only 1/3 formed at birth. Breastmilk is designed to continue to build your baby's brain after she is born and up until 2 yrs of age. Wow!

Cow's milk (which is what standard infant formulas are made from) cannot build your child's brain the way mother's milk can.

Read about the amazing benefits of breastfeeding for yourself. Here are two articles you can look up online:

"Breastfeeding and Later Cognitive and Academic Outcomes" Pediatrics Vol. 101 No. 1 Electronic Article, January 1998
