

family therapist, a certified nurse practitioner or a clinical nurse specialist with a specialty in mental health, all of whom by training and experience are qualified to work with persons with a mental disorder;

- E. “reporting party” means a person who requests that a law enforcement officer file a petition for an extreme risk firearm protection order and includes a spouse, former spouse, parent, present or former stepparent, present or former parent-in-law, grandparent, grandparent-in-law, co-parent of a child, child, household member, person with whom a respondent has or had a continuing personal relationship, employer, qualified licensed mental health professional, or public or private school administrator;
- F. “respondent” means the person identified in or subject to an extreme risk firearm protection order petition;
- G. “subject” means the person identified in or subject to an emergency mental health evaluation and/or care or to an emergency mental health commitment or detention;
- H. “treatment” means any effort to accomplish a significant change in the mental or emotional condition or behavior of the subject.